Dated this the 19th day of September, 2007

ORDER

Application for anticipatory bail. The petitioner apprehends arrest on the allegation that he is guilty of the matrimonial cruelty- of the offence punishable under Sec.498A IPC. Notice was given to the learned Public Prosecutor. The learned Public Prosecutor submits that the petitioner is not required to be arrested in connection with any allegation as apprehended by him in this bail application. It is true that the petitioner's father in law has filed a petition; but inasmuch as no cognizable offence is alleged, no crime has been registered. Attempts and efforts are being made to settle the disputes between the spouses. In these circumstances, the petitioner is not required to be arrested as apprehended by him, submits the learned Public Prosecutor.

2. I take note of and I do hereby record the submissions of the learned Public Prosecutor. In the light of the submissions of the learned Public Prosecutor, I am satisfied that the application of the petitioner is without any basis and this petition can be dismissed now.

In the result this petition is dismissed.
